

THE SECRET OF SARAH PENNINGTON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Secret of Sarah Pennington* nominated for Best Horror Film At upcoming Bare Bones Film Festival

OKLAHOMA CITY (March 19, 2013) – Shiron Butterfly and Oscar Ray, founders of the Bare Bones International Film Festival announced award nominations for the 2013 Festival. According to the festival's website The Bare Bones International Film Festival "was created by filmmakers, screenwriters and actors and was created for filmmakers, screenwriters and actors who are involved in independent motion picture projects anywhere in the world."

The WDC, LLC production The Secret of Sarah Pennington is nominated for Best Horror Film and is set to screen on Friday, April 12, 2013, at 7 PM at the Roxy Theatre in Muskogee.

"We are thrilled to have The Secret of Sarah Pennington nominated in the Horror category. There is an impressive line-up of motion pictures at this year's festival," said producer Matt Jenkins.

The film follows washed up rock star, JONATHAN GRAYLINE (Doug McAbee), who is accused of murdering his band's lead singer during a performance at a small town high school reunion. Locals believe legendary serial killer Sarah Pennington has returned to continue her killing spree. It is up to DETECTIVE TUF TURNER (Skipper Bivins) to solve the murder, as he discovers who his allies truly are.

The large cast includes Skipper Bivins of Hillybilly Handfishin' fame and Oklahoma actor Jed Fox. Award-winning filmmaker Charles Stanley directs with visual effects produced by Doug McAbee and original music by Nashville recording artist, Allen Biffle.
