

THE SECRET OF SARAH PENNINGTON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Hillbilly Handfishin’s” Skipper Bivins first Starring Role in a Feature Length Film to screen at Oklahoma’s Trail Dance Film Festival

The motion picture, “The Secret of Sarah Pennington,” starring 5 time World Champ Noodler and Reality Television Star Skipper Bivins, is scheduled to screen at the upcoming Trail Dance Film Festival in Duncan, OK.

“The Secret of Sarah Pennington’ is a thriller with lots of unexpected twists to keep viewers guessing the identity of the murderer,” remarks producer Matt Jenkins.

Filmed in Cache, Duncan and Lawton, OK, the picture centers around washed up rock star drummer JONATHAN GRAYLINE (Doug McAbee) who is accused of murdering the band’s singer during a performance at a small town high school reunion. Locals think accused serial killer Sarah Pennington has returned to continue her killing spree. DETECTIVE TUF TURNER (Skipper Bivins) must figure out who his allies are as he works to solve the brutal slayings

The film contains original music by Country musician and Duncan resident, Allen Biffle who also has a role.

The large cast, including actors from Lawton, Duncan and Cache, features Jed Fox as Simon Garland, Cynthia Sosa, Dallas Howard, and Pat Bishow of Amusement Films who makes a cameo. Award-winning film maker Charles Stanley directs with visual effects by Doug McAbee.

Those interested in seeing “The Secret of Sarah Pennington” may see the film Friday, January 25, 2013 at the Simmons Center in Duncan as a part of the Trail Dance Film Festival.
